

Lifestyle

The very best of 'country town' living, with access to superb sports, recreation, education and health services make Roma a great place to live.

Health and Social Services

The Roma Hospital provides a range of specialist services including full surgery facilities, obstetrics, paediatrics, anaesthetics, a nursing home, and is the home base of Queensland Health's Flying Surgeons and Flying Gynaecologists. In addition, the Hospital also offers a variety of Allied Health professionals including physiotherapists, podiatrists and a speech pathologist.

There are eight General Practitioners in Roma, working in five private surgeries, as well as a private dental surgery. Private specialist services in optometry, physiotherapy and pathology also exist in Roma, and two pharmacies provide access to prescription and non-prescription medication and health care products. Roma is also well regarded as a centre for aged care with the community supported Pinaroo Retirement Village operating an accredited centre for the aged.

Roma also hosts a wide array of social services, including the Roma and District Community Support Association, Angilcare and Centacare.

Sports and Recreation

The Roma Bungil Community Youth and Recreation Centre has full indoor facilities, making Roma an ideal location for inter town sporting events regardless of the weather conditions. In addition, the Town also has an Olympic size sports and leisure swimming pool.

Roma has many different sporting organisations including Rugby League, Rugby Union, Basketball, Netball, Bowls, Golf, Badminton, Tennis, Soccer, Judo, Little Athletics, Drag Racing, Cricket, Softball, Swimming, Polocrosse, Pony Club, Billiards, Darts, Equestrian, Gun, Rodeo and Squash Clubs. Recreational activities include Lapidary Club, Karate, Tae Kwon Do, Computer Users, Girl Guides, Scouts, Social Dance, Painters, Patchwork and Quilters and Potters Groups.

Retail Outlets

Roma has two major Grocery Stores, Computer Stores, 24 hour Service Stations, General Hardware, Clothing Outlets and an excellent range of convenience and personal stores. Roma has various other facilities found in most small cities, with retail outlets such as McDonalds, Target, Woolworths, KFC and many others.
